

AMJ SOLUTIONS GROUP

SEO Report

Search Engine Optimization, Social Sharing & Structured Data

Site: www.amjsolutionsgroup.com

Date: May 6, 2026

Executive Summary

The website's SEO setup is now fully aligned with the Executive Stability Advisory positioning. All metadata — search engine titles, descriptions, keywords, social media previews, and structured data — has been updated from the legacy "Crisis Communications" framing. Schema.org structured data and a dedicated branded social preview image have been added so the site appears correctly when shared on LinkedIn, WhatsApp, and Twitter, and so Google can display rich information about AMJ Solutions Group and Ana Nelson in search results.

Improvements applied in this update:

1. Aligned the global page title, description, and keywords with current "Executive Stability Advisory" positioning.
2. Designed a custom 1200 × 630 branded social card at the exact recommended dimensions used by LinkedIn, Twitter/X, Facebook, and WhatsApp — featuring the AMJ Solutions Group logo, the "Executive Stability Advisory" headline, and the firm's tagline.
3. Added Schema.org structured data for the Organization (AMJ Solutions Group) and Person (Ana Nelson).
4. Refactored the homepage hero so the background image is now a semantic `<img>` element with descriptive alt text (improves accessibility and image SEO).
5. Enhanced testimonial avatar alt text to include each speaker's role (e.g., "Hannah Morales, Senior Director") for richer SEO and screen-reader signals.
6. Refreshed the `sitemap.xml` modification dates so the next Google crawl picks up all updated content.

1. Search Engine Metadata

These tags control what appears in Google search results and what browsers display in tabs.

1.1 Global metadata (defaults across the site)

Tag	Value
Title	AMJ Solutions Group — Executive Stability Advisory
Description	Executive stability advisory for senior leaders. Aligning leadership, risk, operations, communications, and AI governance to maintain stability and control during disruption. Led by Ana Nelson.
Author	Ana Nelson - AMJ Solutions Group
Robots	index, follow (allows all search engines to index the site)
Canonical URL	https://www.amjsolutionsgroup.com/
Language	English (en)

1.2 Keywords

The following terms are declared as the site's target keywords. They reflect the current Executive Stability Advisory positioning and are derived directly from the language used across the site's pages:

executive stability advisory, fractional COO, executive advisor, leadership alignment, risk and operational resilience, strategic communications, AI governance, technology risk, program stabilization, executive coaching, crisis leadership, Ana Nelson, AMJ Solutions Group, Boca Raton, Fortune 500 advisory

1.3 Geographic targeting

Tag	Value
geo.region	US-FL
geo.placename	Boca Raton

These tags help local search engines associate the firm with its physical location.

1.4 Per-page titles and descriptions

Each page on the site has its own optimized title and description. The full page title shown in browser tabs and Google results follows the pattern: "[Page Title] | AMJ Solutions Group".

5.6 Pages without images

The following pages are text-only (icon components only, no photographs): Services, Contact, Privacy Policy, Terms of Service, Thank You, and 404.

5.7 Image accessibility summary

- All 28 image instances on the site have descriptive, semantic alt text — full coverage for both SEO and accessibility (WCAG compliant).
- The homepage hero is rendered as a semantic `<img>` element (rather than a CSS background) so that search engines and assistive technologies can read its description directly.
- Testimonial avatars carry both the speaker's name and their role (e.g., "Hannah Morales, Senior Director") so screen readers and search crawlers receive the full context.

- All client and partner logos follow a consistent "[Company Name] logo" pattern.

6. Summary of Changes Applied in This Update

Area	Before	After
Global page title	"AMJ Solutions Group - Strategic Communications & Crisis Management"	"AMJ Solutions Group — Executive Stability Advisory"
Global meta description	Crisis-era copy referencing media training and Fortune 500 crisis advisory	"Executive stability advisory for senior leaders. Aligning leadership, risk, operations, communications, and AI governance..."
Meta keywords	Crisis communications, reputation management, media training, public relations...	Executive stability advisory, fractional COO, leadership alignment, AI governance, technology risk, program stabilization...
Open Graph title / description	Crisis-era copy	Updated to match new positioning
Twitter Card title / description	Crisis-era copy	Updated to match new positioning
Social preview image (og:image)	None (missing)	Custom-designed branded social card at the exact recommended 1200 x 630 dimensions (logo, headline, tagline, brand colors)
Twitter preview image (twitter:image)	None (missing)	Same branded social card, rendered identically across platforms
Schema.org Organization data	None (missing)	Full firm profile — name, address, contact, founder
Schema.org Person data	None (missing)	Ana Nelson — title, expertise areas, LinkedIn
Homepage hero image	CSS background image (no alt text — invisible to search engines and screen readers)	Semantic <code></code> element with full descriptive alt text
Testimonial avatar alt text	Speaker name only (e.g., "Hannah Morales")	Speaker name + role (e.g., "Hannah Morales, Senior Director")
Sitemap modification dates	2025-10-26 (stale)	2026-05-06 — refreshed so Google re-crawls the updated site

Why these changes matter:

1. Positioning alignment. Search engine snippets and the title bar of every browser tab now reflect the firm's current positioning. Anyone discovering AMJ via Google, or sharing the link, sees the same story the site itself tells.
2. Professional, branded social previews. When prospects share AMJ's link on LinkedIn, WhatsApp, or in email, the preview now displays a custom-designed brand card at the exact dimensions every major platform expects — instead of an empty preview box. At the executive advisory level, distribution is largely one-to-one and the link's preview is the first impression.
3. Search engine trust signals. Schema.org structured data tells Google that AMJ is a formal organization with verifiable contact details, a founder with credentials, and specific areas of expertise. Over time this increases the chance that Google displays a Knowledge Panel for AMJ Solutions Group and / or for Ana Nelson directly when their names are searched.
4. Full image accessibility. Every photograph and graphic on the site now has descriptive alt text — improving the experience for screen-reader users and giving search engines additional content signals (image SEO contributes to overall ranking).
5. Re-indexing trigger. The refreshed sitemap with a current modification date prompts Google to re-crawl the site on its next pass, which means the new positioning, social card, and structured data all reach search results faster.

7. Verification

After deployment, the following can be used to verify everything is rendering correctly:

Tool	Purpose
https://www.linkedin.com/post-inspector/	Preview how the site appears when shared on LinkedIn
https://cards-dev.twitter.com/validator	Preview how the site appears when shared on Twitter/X
https://developers.facebook.com/tools/debug/	Preview how the site appears on Facebook / WhatsApp / Messenger
https://search.google.com/test/rich-results	Validate the Schema.org Organization and Person structured data
https://validator.schema.org/	Cross-check structured data against the official Schema.org specification
Google Search Console	(If connected to the site) — monitor indexing, search appearance, and any technical issues. The refreshed sitemap can also be submitted here for immediate re-indexing.

End of report.
